Mr Bamboozle's message was great for all the children and also for the learning outcomes of EYLF.

What we do

The most memorable lessons are the ones we learn while we're having fun and we deliver messages to children around resilience, self-esteem, friendship, listening and sharing in a VERY fun way. Weaving storytelling and magic in unexpected and delightful ways that keep children engaged, we take them on a memorable journey of personal discovery, helping to build important life skills.

Utilising a variety of learning concepts including positive peer interaction, self-regulation strategies and collaborative learning enables different learners and different ages to participate to their level. When children are happy and engaged the best possible learning will occur and you'll be able to see the results for yourself.

There's something for everyone!

Show Packages

Mr Bamboozle is the warm and friendly magical character central to these captivating 45 minute shows. He layers storytelling, magic, physical comedy and loads of interaction to make these shows memorable and impactful for the entire audience.

Don't Give Up Magic Show

Mr Bamboozle is having trouble with his magic - he just can't seem to do it today. Even with all the children helping, the show takes some very funny, very unexpected twists and turns. A charming show with messages about resilience, self-belief and self-confidence. (EYLF links provided)

Friends Are Great Magic Show

Mr Bamboozle's friends are missing and the children help to find them. Along the way they help him smooth things over with his friend Robbie Raccoon. Children are thoroughly engaged as they help Mr Bamboozle and hear messages on friendship, listening and sharing. (EYLF links provided)

It's Nearly Christmas Magic Show

Mr Bamboozle has a big Christmas show coming up and he is nervous because Santa will be there. Can the children help him get ready in time for the big day?

Fun Fun Fun Magic Show

The children seem to be playing tricks on Mr Bamboozle and don't they love it as his magic goes hilariously wrong! A mighty fun show that engages and empowers all the children. Suitable for celebrations and all-faith audiences.

Note: Mr Bamboozle does not believe in using live animals for the purpose of his shows, though Robbie Raccoon thinks he's real, so please don't tell him, ok?
